

Where were you when you learned about the May 13th, 1985 Bombing of MOVE?

You remember. You remember because the tragedy that day touched everyone it reached. What did it teach you?

Tell someone.

Write a poem, short story, rhyme, or snapshot. What did it mean? What did you learn?

What are you going to do?

Tell Us.

Join:

Immortal Technique, host
Amiri Baraka
Amina Baraka
Ursula Rucker
Mom Sug Dojo
Goldie (Mumia's daughter)
The Cornell West Theory
Alberta Africa
Ray & Mike (Welfare Poets)
Universal African Dance &
Drum Ensemble
Professor Burton Caine
Life, the Poet
& many more

Perform, share, build the REVOLUTION.

Be a part of the movement to FREE the MOVE 9 & all political prisoners!

Saturday May 11
12-4 pm
Drexel University
Room TBA
West Philly

The MOVE family was bombed in an attempt to stop their work to free all LIFE & specifically, the MOVE 9. The MOVE 9 are still incarcerated. Let's bring them home.

www.onamove.com

onamovellja@gmail.com

267-408-7802